

BASS CLEF'S THIRD CONCERT SEASON

Opened With Programme Finely Rendered in Slater Hall—
Assisted by Vocalist and Violinist—Large Audience
Gives Enthusiastic Applause to Club of Norwich Men Singers.

There was a large attendance at the Bass-Clef concert given at Slater hall on Friday evening, showing the interest taken in the work of this organization. This is the third season since the club began these public entertainments which show the aims and scope of the work attempted during the year.

It is interesting to note the progress from season to season in the club itself and there is ever the novelty of the soloists who assist. Their programme on Friday evening was a most generous one.

There were ten selections by the club under Charles D. Geer's directing and with Frederick W. Lester's skilful accompaniment. Miss Vera Barstow proved a most acceptable violinist, her sweet tone and sympathetic rendering bring her enthusiastic applause and her six selections on the programme were lengthened by two encore numbers.

Her accompaniments were played by Mr. Lester. Miss Barstow's contralto brought her own accompaniment. Miss Edith Clark Griffin's work was also received with favor. She generously responded each time she appeared with an additional song.

The active members of the club are: First tenors Charles R. Carlyle, Russell Hunt, Curtis Hull, Nelson L. Mabrey, Charles N. Parsons, Raymond B. Sherman, George P. Smith, William E. Stevens, Woodruff Sullivan, George A. Turner.

Second tenors Ebenezer Allen, Arthur R. Blackledge, William A. Buckingham, Oscar W. Carpenter, E. J. Graham, Oscar Heinrich, James J. Moore, J. C. Overbagh, John B. Oat, Joseph R. Schwartz.

REMONSTRANCE AGAINST TRANSFER OF LICENSE.

Made in New London Before County Commissioners.

Friday morning before the board of county commissioners in weekly session at New London a vigorous attempt was made to prove that the premises at 15 Atlantic street in that city are occupied as a house of ill-fame. The attempt was made to substantiate the claim of Richard W. Mansfield and A. W. Brown that the premises in question are of such a character that they should be removed from the city limits.

The board of county commissioners should not grant a transfer of license to Michael McCrohan, who wishes to transfer from 72 Bradley street. The commissioners received their decision.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Charles Serling.
At 8:30 o'clock Friday morning the funeral of Leah, wife of Charles Serling, was held from her late home, and the services were conducted by Rabbi Joseph N. Rosenberg, a son-in-law of Mrs. Serling. The bearers were David Shereshevsky, Max Schwartz, William Traubenberg, John Roman and Samuel Goldberg. Burial was in the cemetery at Brewster's Neck, and a committal service was read at the grave by the rabbi. Mrs. Serling died about 7 o'clock Thursday morning from the effects of paralysis, after illness of only two days. She was a native of Russia, and leaves her husband, two sons, Harry and Jake Serling of Syracuse, N. Y., and four daughters, Mrs. Max Wilson, Mrs. Bernard Blakely of Scranton, Pa., Mrs. Morris Miller of Boston and Mrs. Joseph N. Rosenberg of this city.

Thomas Shea.
The funeral of Thomas Shea was held from the parlors of M. Hourigan Friday morning, and in the large attendance were relatives from other cities. There were many handsome floral tokens of regard. Rev. J. H. Broderick officiated at the services in St. Patrick's church, at the close of which two hymns were rendered by Mrs. P. L. Farrell. The bearers were Horace C. Corning, Thomas Curran of New Haven, W. G. McCrory of New York and John Shea of Beverly, Mass. Burial was in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

Arthur Haupt.
The funeral of Arthur Haupt was held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haupt on Hammond avenue, and the attendance was large. There were conducted by Rev. Theodore Bauck, and burial was in the Yantic cemetery. Undertaker Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer, if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and the liver like Olive Tablets. Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel—they oil the bowels; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. Dr. Edwards spent many years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one lightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel. 50c and 50c per box.

A Feathered Highwayman.

The man-o-war hawk is a somewhat large bird and an expert fisher, but he does most of his fishing in the air. When the booby bird comes home from abroad he finds the man-o-war hawk "day in" for him, and he persistently may seek to escape by dashing flight, with much screaming and screaming, he finds that before he can safely set foot on land he must disgorge a fish or two, which the swift pursuer adroitly catches in the air. It seems, however, to be generally understood as a modus vivendi between the fisher and the pirate birds that their contentions were only on the wing, and that once on land they should dwell peacefully in their separate camping grounds.

The boobies are awkward and unsteady on land, and may be easily captured. They rarely seek to escape when a man approaches, but accustomed to meet the demands of their familiar enemy, the man-o-war hawk, by disgorging a fish in the air, they frequently resort to the same process and lay at the feet of the intruding stranger what stock of fish they have available. The man-o-war hawk turned this practice to their own advantage by following any man, who might appear among the nesting birds, circling in the air, just overhead, ready to pick up the fish which the frightened boobies might give up as a peace offering. The man-o-war hawk was generally eager for anything, and would hover closely ready to take from the hand of a man what ever he might toss in the air. On one occasion one of these birds swiftly swooped down and snatched a morsel of food from the hand of a man who was on the ground, and sailed away, dropping it, however, on finding it to be neither fish nor rat.

A Death of German Princesses.
The German emperor's new grandson—just born to the wife of his fourth son, Prince August Wilhelm—brings the number of his grandsons up to five, as the crown prince has four boys. So far his majesty has not a single granddaughter. Indeed, there is becoming a quite serious dearth of princesses in the imperial family of Germany at the present time. The emperor himself has six sons and one daughter. His only son, Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia (brother of the duchess of Connaught) has three sons to one daughter. The late Prince Albert, regent of Brunswick, left three sons and no daughter. The emperor's sisters among them have a great many more sons than daughters. One of them, Princess Frederick Charles of Hesse, has a family of six sons, including two pairs of twins.

English Beauty Tells

Complexion Secrets

("Elise" in American Home.)
Through a fortunate meeting with an English lady, noted for her many complexion, I recently learned the full meaning of that old adage, "Beauty is but skin deep." She taught me how to remove my muddy old skin, revealing the young and beautiful skin underneath. The process is so simple, harmless and inexpensive, I'm sure you'll be glad to know about it. Just get an ounce of ordinary meringue wax at any drug store and apply nightly like cold cream for a week or so. Every morning in washing off the wax, tiny particles of worn-out skin come off too. The action is so gentle and gradual, there's no discomfort. It's a wonderful treatment, as it not only gets off the faded or discolored skin, but all of its defects, such as chaps, roughness, freckles, pimples, blotches, blackheads. I am indebted to the same lady for a remarkable white cream which is dissolved in a half pint witch hazel. Used as a face bath, this is so effective that just one application causes the finer lines to disappear, and soon even the deepest ones go.

An Alphabet for China.

The recent Chinese national educational conference at Peking discussed the question of a Chinese alphabet. Four resolutions were adopted: (1) That universal education and a written language should be accessible to every citizen and not to a privileged few; (2) word sounds should be pronounced alike throughout the country; (3) in order to fix the sound of a word an alphabet is indispensable; (4) scholars versed in phonetics, and also representatives of every provincial capital, should be employed to invent or adapt signs which would form an alphabet, and certain conditions which that alphabet should satisfy were laid down.

Explained at Last.

When you were a boy, remarks the Blue Mound Sun, you had a wonderful appetite and everything that mother put on the table tasted good. That was before you ruined your stomach at midnight suppers and killed your taste with tobacco, and—its no wonder wife's cooking doesn't taste like mother's used to.
